

Blog Reaction & Reflection

20 points

Please read the 2 assigned readings from the Class 2 in the Assignments folder. In your personal blog, reflect on the articles. Include your own personal insights and reactions to both articles. Some articles may mention thoughts on future research, so feel free to comment on if any of the future research is pertinent to your own personal research goals & objectives.

Each blog posting should include an APA style citation and your own personal annotation of each article. The name of the article will serve as the subject line of your blog posting.
